

LOWCOUNTRY HISTORY

Explore South Carolina Lowcountry History throughout the exhibits of the Wall Lowcountry Center, The Lowcountry Trail, and the Floyd Family Farm Exhibit.

LOWCOUNTRY ZOO

The native animals that live in the woods, swamps, and waters of the South Carolina Lowcountry are being displaced by the rapidly growing population of our area. At the Lowcountry Zoo, you can see these animals in areas maintained as close as possible to their natural habitats.

GENERAL INFORMATION

DINING: Near the entrance of the sculpture garden, Harvest offers a full lunch menu with soups, salads, sandwiches, and desserts. Harvest and the outdoor patio area are WI-FI accessible. View the restaurant's menu at austinisharvestrestaurant.com. Also open for dinner during special events and evenings when we have extended hours. See our website for schedule.

In the center of the garden, The Old Kitchen serves light refreshments, salads, and wraps. Open 10 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

The Courtyard Cafe, located in the Wall Lowcountry Center, serves sandwiches, hot dogs, and light snacks.

PICNICS: We have two designated picnic areas, one diagonally across from the main parking lot and one near the zoo, where picnicking is allowed. At certain times, picnic tables may also be available outside the Leonard Pavilion.

SHOPPING: Browse through the many areas in Keepsakes, the Brookgreen Museum Shop and see works by local artists, artisans, and authors; also, toys for children and garden wares. Shipping is available.

ACCESSIBILITY: Brookgreen Gardens is wheelchair accessible.

JUST FOR KIDS: The Children's Storybook Forest and the Children's Sensory Trail are sure to delight. Located across from the Lowcountry Zoo, these areas are open all day.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Visitors are encouraged to take photographs of the gardens and our artwork for personal use; however, any commercial use, reproduction, or sale, directly or online, of any images is not allowed. For our full photography policy, please visit our website.

PETS: For your pet's safety and the safety of our zoo collection, we do not allow pets in Brookgreen Gardens. Pets cannot be left in cars.

SERVICE ANIMALS that have received special training to assist disabled persons are welcome. Animals whose sole function is to provide comfort or emotional support do not qualify as service animals under the ADA.

SCULPTURES at Brookgreen Gardens are works of fine art and not meant to be touched, climbed on, or sat upon.

OUR ANIMALS: Please do not feed the animals in the Lowcountry Zoo or Floyd Family Farm. Our Zoo animals are on monitored diets specific to their species and health requirements.

OUR GARDENS are meant for the enjoyment of all. Please do not pick plants or walk into planting beds.
